

Course Title	Field Training
Course code	ACCT390
Pre-required courses	None
Course Level	Summer
Credit Hours	3 hours
Teaching Language	Arabic
Course Description
This course is based on a deeper understanding of the student in achieving the link between information and the practical reality of their qualification to the labor market and fill the appropriate functions in order to bridge the gap between the outputs of academic courses and the application of practical, by requesting guidance on how to prepare reports and actual performance analysis of a working party sites and compare it to what has been studied to courses down to the performance evaluation of accounting within the training site
Course Aims:
This course aims to achieve: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Acquisition of student skills to prepare accounting reports • The development of student skills in linking accounting decisions have been studied and applied in the labor market. • Student analytical capability development in the search for pragmatic reality accounting problems • The development of analytical skills in dealing with the process faced by employers accounting problems • The development of analytical ability of the student to choose the appropriate accounting methods for the treatment of practical problems • The development of presentations and communication skills of the students.
Course Contents:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identification practical training methodology, methods and objectives • training to prepare students for the actual reality of the labor market • The study and analysis of actual performance in a training sites • methodological steps for the preparation of the practical training report • preparation of individual and collective reports • Discussing reports 	