

Course Title	Managerial Accounting medium
Course code	ACCT 351
Pre-required courses	Managerial Accounting ACCT 221
Course Level	Sixth
Credit Hours	3 hours
Teaching Language	Arabic
Course Description:
This course aims to link between management accounting and cost accounting which focus on the role of management accounting information in planning, control, and decision making areas. This course includes: Classification of cost accounting, Using of Break-even analysis in profit planning, Using of operating budgets in control and planning process, Using of relevant information in decision making process. Also, this course will cover all course topics with practical and applied cases to support the theoretical framework
Course Aims:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To know the main concepts and principles of management accounting and its 'relationship with other accounting branches • To know Classification of cost accounting and its' role in planning, control, and decision making process. • To know using of quantitative, analytical, and economic concepts of management accounting such as: Using of Break-even analysis in profit planning. • To know preparation bases of operating and investment budgets in the light of relevant information under assumption of risk and certainty cases.
Course Contents:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the main concepts and principles of management accounting and its 'relationship with other accounting branches • Classification of cost accounting and its' role in planning, control, and decision making process. • Using of quantitative, analytical, and economic concepts of management accounting such as: Using of Break-even analysis in profit planning. • Preparation bases of operating and investment budgets in the light of relevant information under assumption of risk and certainty cases. 	