

Course Title	Financial List Analysis
Course code	ACCT 411
Pre-required courses	Intermediate Financial Account (2)ACCT 212
Course Level	Eighth
Credit Hours	3 hours
Teaching Language	Arabic

Course Description

This course seeks to achieve efficiency of use of scientific studied accounting information through the development of students' abilities to read and interpret and analyze financial statements using diverse methods of financial analysis as well as the development of the preparation of financial forecasts to serve all users of information in accordance with the standards of appropriate considerations professional skills

Course Aims:

This course aims to achieve

- Identification of the conceptual framework for financial reporting in businesses
- Acquisition of cognitive skills and analytical methods for financial analysis
- The ability to use financial analysis to read, analyze and interpret information statements of income and cash flows and financial position
- Mastery of the methods of evaluating companies
- Knowledge of the cognitive underpinnings necessary for the preparation of financial forecasts in businesses

Course Contents:

The conceptual framework for financial reporting

- Financial reporting objective
- Types of financial report
- What financial analysis reports
- Financial analysis types and components
- The relationship between business analysis and financial statement analysis
- Method of financial analysis
- Analysis by financial ratios
- Comparative- analysis
- Financial analysis of the basic financial statements
- Statement of financial position
- Income statement
- Statement of cash flows
- Modern trends in financial analysis
- The profit quality analysis and using Quantitative methods in financial analysis
- Companies' evaluation.
- The financial forecasts in businesses