

Course Title:	Principles of financial management
Course code:	FIN101
Pre-required courses:	ACCT102
Course Level:	Fourth
Credit Hours:	3 Hours
Teaching Language:	Arabic
Course Description:
This course describes the concept of financial management, objectives and components of the financial system. It also describes the income statement and balance sheet and financial indicators used in the company's performance evaluation from different dimensions such as activity, profitability, liquidity, indebtedness. It discusses the market performance of the company's shares. As well as cash management and inventory management displays, and accounts receivable management, and working capital management.
Course Aims:
This course seeks to discuss the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The concept of financial management, objectives and components of the financial system. • Knowledge management functions and financial trends Financial Officer about the risk. • Types of economic organizations and the application of financial management. • Understand the nature of the relationship between the accounting system and financial system. • The concept of the income statement and balance sheet and a simplified formula preparation. • The concept of financial indicators and skill calculated and interpreted. • Skills of cash management. • Skills of inventory management. • Skills of accounts receivable management. • Skills of working capital management.
Course Contents:
Contents of this course include the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The concept of financial management, objectives and components of the financial system. • Management functions and financial trends Financial Officer about the risk. • Types of economic organizations and the application of financial management. • Accounting system and its relationship to the financial system. • The concept of the income statement and balance sheet and a simplified formula preparation. • Financial indicators. • Cash management. • Inventory management. • Accounts receivable management. • Working capital management. 	