

Course Title:	Financial Reports List Analysis
Course code:	FIN333
Pre-required courses:	Corporate Finance (FIN288)
Course Level:	Sixth
Credit Hours:	3
Teaching Language:	Arabic
Course Description:
This course describes the concept of financial analysis and objectives of the parties benefiting from the financial analysis perspective, the role of chief financial officer and financial analyst, financial statements in terms of concept. It also describes the scheduled analysis of financial statements using simple financial indicators, and analyze all of the activity and profitability and liquidity and indebtedness of the company. Applications of equalizer analysis in the case of multiple products, and analysis of the risk of the company by using the lifting techniques are also displayed.
Course Aims:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mastering the concept of financial analysis and objectives of the parties benefiting from the financial analysis. • Mastering the role of chief financial officer and financial analyst. Understanding financial statements in terms of concept and formats setting. • Mastering skill analysis of financial statements using simple financial indicators. • Mastering `the skill of the company's risk analysis method using the lift. • Mastering skills to predict the needs of the company's financial PI manner and style of the percentage of the sales. • - Analyzing of the cost of funding the skill of short-term and long-term cost of funding.
Course Contents:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The concept of financial analysis and objectives of the parties benefiting from the financial analysis. • Financial management and financial analysis. • Chief financial officer and financial analyst concept and roles. • Financial statements of the income statement and balance sheet in terms of concept and formats setting. • Analysis of financial statements using simple financial indicators. • The analysis of all of the "Activity, profitability, liquidity indebtedness," the company's indicators and the most important problems. • Analysis of the traditional tie and cash and use it as a tool for the planning of profit or risk.. • Risk analysis of the company using the lifting method. • Predict the needs of the company's financial PI manner and style of the percentage of the sales. • Analysis of the cost of short-term funding. • Analysis of the cost of long-term funding. 	