

Course Title	The Social System in Islam
Course code	ISLM 151
Pre-required courses	None
Course Level	Third
Credit Hours	2 hour
Teaching Language	Arabic
Course Description:
The course describes the concept and the characteristics of Muslims ‘society in comparison with international covenants. It shows the importance of strengthening the social ties and encouraging the promotion of Virtue and the prevention of Vice in the community. The course deals with the most important social problems and their solutions. It highlights women status in Islam, the family status and how some covenants oppose Muslim rights. Further, it tackles speech as well as marriage conditions and implications.
Course Aims:
The course aims to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognize the status and the rights of an individual. • Recognize the importance of family in Islam • Recognize the criteria for spouse selection. • Clarify family rights. • Clarify family problems. • Recognize marriage conditions. • Recognize social bonds. • Recognize social solidarity: types and features. • Recognize the Promotion of Virtue and Prevention of Vice conditions • To act according to the values of social responsibility.
Course Contents:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The concept of the Muslim community and its foundations. • Human Rights in Islam compared with international covenants • Reasons for strengthening of social ties. • The Promotion of Virtue and Prevention of Vice. • Major social problems and their solutions and prevention. • The status of the family concept in Islam: How international agreements violate Muslim rights. • The status of women in Islam • Factors for family protection. • Sermon and speech conditions. • Marriage: conditions and purposes. • The implications of the marriage contract • Marital problems :causes, effects and solutions 	