The Alumni Unit of College of Medicine at IAU has held its 8th program of the academic year 2021-2022 titled “Internship Day 1” through “ZOOM” platform, targeting medical interns. The aims are to facilitate the understanding of important aspects of residency programs interviews, to be able to write a proper CV, and to practice interviews by seniors in the field. The program carried 2 distinctive activities to meet the objectives: very insightful lectures and one to one mock interviews. An outstanding lecture about the important interview tips was given by Dr. Mohammed Alshahrani where different aspects were addressed to shed the light of what to do or avoid during interviews. The other lecture presented by Dr. Mohammed AlMuaigel was very helpful on how to make your CV look outstanding. The mock interviews were carried through zoom by great residents who have themselves undergone many previous interviews. The audience were a total of 268 interns. An evaluation survey was shared at the end to improve and develop better future programs. Attached below are photos from the evaluation survey.
