In case more than one researcher participated in one scientific paper, one of the researchers fill out the form behalf of the others (in English) and send it via the e-mail, provided that the Subject should be the name of the author who filled out the form.