

The Role of Social Worker at the Hospital

Providing social and environmental information about the patient in order to success the treatment plan with the medical team

Raising patients' awareness and making them aware of the social causes of disease.

Providing social counseling and support to patients and their families.

Participating in health awareness days in the hospital.

Guiding patients to external institutions to help them complete the treatment plan
(Such as home care, social institutions or associations Charity)

Assisting patients to overcome social issues that hinder the treatment plan.

Helping patients and their families to adapt to chronic diseases and accept the new situation.

Contributing in achieving quality of health care.

Educating patients about wrong social habits, thoughts and behaviors.

Cooperating with the General Department of family protection in reporting cases of violence and abuse.

 These services are provided with privacy to help you make a decision