What We Do

We provide:

- Knowledgeable and enthusiastic staff
- One-to-one tuition
- Study groups for all courses
- On-demand and scheduled interactive and collaborative weekly support programs
- Study skills workshops covering important concepts and strategies including time management, learning styles, note-taking, as well as many others.
- State-of-the-art study centre that students can also use for peer tutoring.

And a fully equipped lab that includes:

- Kiosk-style computers with interactive software, digital learning material and applications for word-processing, database management, web-page authoring, and presentations amongst others.

One-to-One Academic Support

If you need dedicated support or have fallen behind, we have trained academic advisors from a variety of subjects who can help you catch up. Look out for the LRSC 'study group' timetables for details of who you can meet and when they are available.

Students at the Preparatory Year may also request on-demand tutoring for courses in which they are currently enrolled and can contact and visit the Centre for more information.
